Your Arizona registration may be renewed up to 90 days prior to expiration. If your vehicle is in an area that requires an emission test for renewal, and your vehicle will be out of state during or after that 90 day period, you may request a testing exemption from ADEQ.

- A. If your vehicle is located in an area that has an emission inspection program, you must have the vehicle tested there and submit a passing Vehicle Inspection Report. This is an official document issued by the inspection authority, and must indicate the agency issuing the document.
- B. If your vehicle that requires testing is NOT in an area of another state that has an emission inspection program, you must complete the Vehicle Identification Information, Signature and have the Out-Of-State Verification section of this form completed by a local law enforcement official (campus police, military police/base security) or Department of Motor Vehicles official in that state.
